Funds are automatically loaded onto the card each quarter. When using your card to pay for your OTC products, you will do one of the following:

- › In store - Bring your card and use it when you check out. All products that are eligible will be paid for with the card.
- › Online or by phone - Have your card nearby when you call or place your order online, you will be asked for your Cigna Healthy Today Card number.
- › By mail - Fill out the enclosed order form. Funds will be deducted from your Cigna Healthy Today Card.

What OTC products are eligible for in-store purchase?

There are many products eligible for purchase. To find a list of eligible products, please visit CignaHealthyToday.com.

How much is my quarterly allowance?

Your quarterly allowance depends on your specific Cigna Medicare Advantage plan. Please review your Evidence of Coverage to find your plan's quarterly OTC allowance.

Do unused funds from my OTC quarterly allowance roll over to the next quarter?

Unused OTC benefit amounts don't roll over from one quarter to the next or from year to year. Be sure to use your allowance before the end of each quarter.

- › Q1 - January, February and March
- › Q2 - April, May and June
- › Q3 - July, August and September
- › Q4 - October, November and December

Remember: If you order by mail, the total will deduct from your allowance in the quarter in which we receive the order form – not when you send the order form – so plan ahead.

What if my OTC purchase exceeds my available funds?

If the total of your order exceeds your quarterly allowance or remaining funds, you'll need to pay the difference out of pocket. Benefit funds must be used in their entirety before other forms of payment are accepted.
