I have the Programming software and cable for a Crouzet. Does anyone know if it can be used for programming a Mitsu Alpha PLC? When I installed this software, I had to fumble my way through the menus until I found the language option. I don't speak French, but finding the right option wasn't too tough. As long as you're not connected to the PLC, your chances of breaking anything are very slim. Take a quick look at the pulldown menus.
