

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

I'm not robot!

Riello gas 3 burner manual

How does a riello oil burner work. How do you reset a riello burner.

Page 22 2.1 2.1.1 Note the instructions for use attached to the burner: A is also required for integration. Therefore, he should try to look and add a burner later, even selling or installing another owner or consumer or installing it in another system. If it is established or lost, the technical technical copy may become another copy: • is intended for the use of specialized staff, • Provides important information and security information on installation, launch, use and warnings. The symbols used in the manual are labeled in some parts of the bags with a triangular virus. Please pay special attention to this, paying attention to a potentially dangerous situation. 2.1.2. This discovery may include related hazard types, 3 levels.

The highest risk level! This symbol denotes rights that can cause serious injuries, deaths or long -term health risks. This symbol denotes rights that can cause serious injuries, deaths or long -term health risks. This symbol denotes stalks that can damage the car and/or people if these things are wrong. Note 2.1.3. Risk of tension caused by fear of components. This symbol denotes stems that can cause electricity, creating a risk of deception. Dangerous flammable material This symbol indicates that the fabrics are burning. The risk of burning this symbol indicates that high temperature poses a risk of burn. 201444818 General Information and Information Required Customer ServiceB'trino 22

2.1 2.1.1 INTRODUCTION INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE Attached to the burner: \ XEF \ X83 \ XA4 is a necessary and integral part of the product and cannot be separated from it; Therefore, it must be stored carefully for future use and the burner must be stored if it is sold to another owner or user or installed in another auxiliary system. In case of damage or loss, another copy can be obtained from the technical department responsible for this area; \xef\x83\xa4 is designed for professional use; \ XEF \ X83 \ XA4 contains important information and safety information for the installation, start-up, use and maintenance of the burner. Symbols are used for guidance. Warning triangles are shown in certain sections of the manual. Please pay close attention to them as they point to a potentially dangerous situation. 2.1.2 Hazard types can be divided into 3 levels according to the following information. The highest level of danger! This symbol indicates actions that, if not performed correctly, will result in serious injury, death, or long-term health hazards. This symbol indicates actions that, if not performed correctly, could result in serious injury, death, or long-term health hazards. This symbol indicates processes that, if performed incorrectly, can cause damage to the machine and/or people. Caution 2.1.3 Danger of exposed elements This symbol indicates actions, the improper execution of which can lead to death from electric shock. Danger of flammable substances This symbol indicates thisWith oxygen as a component of the surrounding air, in which the combustion spreads together with the mixed mixture after ignition. Personal protective equipment these symbols indicate the means that the operator must wear in order to protect himself from dangers that jeopardize his safety or health during work. The assembly of the lid and all safety and protective devices is required, this symbol indicates that after maintenance, cleaning or control, it is necessary to re -set the lid and all safety and protective devices. Environmental protection this symbol provides information about the environmentally safe use of the device.

Important information this symbol indicates the important information that should be taken into account. This symbol denotes the list. Uplifiers used by the head of Fig.

Fig. Tab "section". Table d d