The Pirates have advanced to the NCAA Championships in back-to-back years

Pirate Basketball Looks To Go

After three NCAA Championships appearances and three 20-win seasons in the last four seasons, the Armstrong Atlantic State men's basketball team has built a reputation of being a "good" quality program in the South Atlantic region and the Peach Belt.

Head coach Jeff Burkhamer and the Pirates, however, want to be more than just "good." This year, the goal for the Pirates is to become "great."

The task will not be easy after the departure of three key seniors, including all-time games-played leader and three-time All-PBC selection Bryan Taylor, as well as All-PBC guard Tory Harris and senior Darly Massamba. But seven returnees and seven newcomers begin the season on a mission to bring the Pirates from good to great in 2008.

Last year, the key returnees for the Pirates came in the frontcourt. This year, the backcourt has the most Senior Will Kane has dished out 238 assists (3.97 per game) in two seasons as the Pirates' starting point guard.

returning experience, beginning with senior point guard William Kane (5-11, 175, Raleigh, N.C.). Kane has ranked among the league's leaders in assists and assist/turnover ratio each of the last two seasons and will be counted on to direct the Pirates' up-tempo offense in 2007-08.

Backing up Kane at the point guard position will be a couple of newcomers - junior Andrew Webber (5-11, 170, Adelaide, South Australia) comes to the States from across the Pacific Ocean with a stellar reputation as a ball-handler and shooter. Middle Georgia JC and Butler HS product Marcus Curry (6-1, 195, Augusta, Ga.) will also contribute at the one.

Senior sharpshooter Jamaal Galloway (5-11, 175, Inverness, Fla.) will get a look to replace the departed Harris at shooting guard. AASU's all-time leader in three-point baskets, Galloway can become the Peach Belt's all-time leader in three-point baskets with a solid season. Fellow sharpshooter Parker Hayden (6-5, 200, Raleigh, N.C.) has improved tremendously in his two previous seasons and will also be in the mix at the two.

Pushing for time at the two-guard spot will be senior transfer Corey Johnson (6-1, 170, Fayetteville, N.C.), who joins AASU from Arkansas-Little Rock. Johnson played one season at UALR and was an All-Region performer at Aiken Tech previously.

A pair of junior college teammates look to make an immediate impact for the Pirates at the 3 and 4 positions - juniors T.T. Hall (6-3, 180, West Palm Beach, Fla.) and Calvin Wilson (6-6, 195, Bartow, Fla.) helped St. Petersburg JC to back-to-back Florida state tournament berths. Hall averaged 16 points and shot 48.5 percent from three-point range as a sophomore, earning All-Sun Coast Conference honors, while Wilson averaged 10 points and five rebounds a game.

Senior Franchot Brown (6-4, 195, Washington Wilkes, Ga.) will add experience and depth at the forward position. Brown averaged 2.4 points and 2.4 rebounds per game as a junior in his first season for the Pirates.

Wilson will compete with returnee Jimmy Fanning (6-10, 225, Hilton Head, S.C.) for time at the power forward spot, while fifth-year senior Nick Bloemhof (7-0, 230, Mepel, The Netherlands) could also see time at the four as well as the five. Another newcomer will also see time at forward is junior Brian Moultrie league has made the move back to a one-division format and a round-robin schedule, with the Pirates playing home-and-home games with each of the other 10 league teams. AASU will play in three tournaments in the fall, starting with the PBC/Carolinas Conference Classic at Francis Marion, where AASU will take on Coker and St. Andrews. The Pirates will visit West Georgia for a non-conference tilt, then host the Wolves again with Lenoir-Rhyne in the Chatham Orthopedics Holiday Classic in December. AASU will close out its non-conference schedule with games against Virginia State and Chowan in the Spring Hill Suites Midtown New Year's Classic.

The Pirates have been picked to finish fifth in 2007-08 in a preseason vote of the league's coaches, behind Augusta State, Clayton State, Columbus State and GCSU. North Georgia is eligible for NCAA play this season, meaning 10 teams will take part in the Peach Belt Conference Championships in March - where the Pirates will look to extend an impressive streak of 13 consecutive opening-game wins.

Despite the success of the Pirates in advancing to the NCAA Championships three of the last four years, AASU is still searching for its first NCAA postseason victory since 1995. For the Pirates to do so, they will have to fulfill their preseason promise of going from good to great in 2008.

(6-5, 205, Beaufort, S.C.), who was an All-Carolinas Junior College Conference honoree for Clinton JC as a sophomore last season, averaging 17.5 points a game.

The tough task of replacing Taylor in the middle will fall squarely on the shoulders of senior Patrick Sanou (6-6, 215, Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso), who has improved tremendously since joining the Pirates as a redshirt sophomore. Sanou averaged career-bests 8.2 points and 5.3 rebounds per game as a junior last season and was the first-ever AASU men's basketball player to earn CoSIDA Academic All-District III honors. Sanou will be backed up by Bloemhof and local product Bobby Ancrum (6-5, 260, Savannah, Ga.), who returns home to the site of his stellar Beach HS career.

Head Coach Jeff Burkhamer

Jeff Burkhamer Head Men's Basketball Coach

Jeff Burkhamer enters his sixth season as head men's basketball coach at Armstrong Atlantic State University, leading the Pirates to the NCAA Championships for the third time in the last four seasons and a 21-9 overall record. The Pirates have also won 20 games in three of the last four seasons, a program first.

In his five years at AASU, the Pirates have compiled a 94-55 overall record, a .631 winning percentage that ranks as the best in Pirate men's basketball history. In Burkhamer's eleven seasons as a collegiate head coach, he has compiled a 249-96 overall record (.722) and has earned Coach of the Year honors in six of those 11 seasons.

Last year, the Pirates advanced to the NCAA South Atlantic Regional for the seventh time in school history and also won its opening game in the PBC Tournament for the 13th straight year. On January 24th, the Pirates pulled off its biggest upset of the Peach Belt era, knocking off then No. 2-ranked Clayton State, 63-58, at Alumni Arena.

Burkhamer joined AASU as its ninth head men's basketball coach on June 10, 2002 after a four-year stint at Marshall University under head coach Greg White, first as an assistant coach and then, in 2001-2002, as associate head coach. While at Marshall, Burkhamer helped the Thundering Herd to a 70-44 record in four seasons in Mid-American Conference play.

Prior to joining Marshall, Burkhamer served as the head coach at Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville, Fla., leading the Saints to two Mid-Florida Conference titles. He earned National Junior College Coach of the Year honors by College Sport Magazine in 1995-96 as the Saints set a school record with 28 wins and also won 21 straight games to begin the season, gaining a No. 5 NJCAA national ranking and finishing the year with a 28-4 record. In four seasons, the Saints went 97-31 under Coach Burkhamer.

Burkhamer also served as an assistant coach for three seasons in the Continental Basketball Association (CBA), the developmental league of the NBA, with the Grand Rapids Hoops before leading the Santa Fe program and previously served as a head coach at North Greenville College in Tiger-ville, S.C., where he went 58-10 in two seasons and earned NJCAA Region 10 Coach of the Year honors twice from 1989-1991. He started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Winthrop University in 1984-85, then moved to Charleston Southern (1985-87) and Morehead State (1987-89).

A graduate of Alderson-Broadus College in Philippi, West Virginia, Burkhamer was a four-year letterman for the Battlers in basketball and baseball and holds the school's all-time assist mark with 646. Burkhamer was inducted into the Battler Hall of Fame in 2001 and was honored by the Parkersburg News and Sentinel in 2004 as a member of their Silver Anniversary team, spotlighting the top high school players from the Parkersburg area over the last 25 years. He graduated from Alderson-Broadus with a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1984 and earned his master's degree in health and physical education from Morehead State in 1989.

Burkhamer and his wife, Diane, have two children - Melissa (16) and Lindsey (11) - and the family lives in Savannah.

Questions and Answers with AASU Head Coach Jeff Burkhamer

- What were the most important factors in your decision to become the head basketball coach at Armstrong Atlantic?

There were a number of factors that went into my decision. First of all, I wanted to be a head coach again and run my own program. I truly enjoy making the tough decisions and love running practices and coaching in games. Second, I wanted to live in the South and in a city where my family would enjoy living. The beautiful city of Savannah, the beach and the weather fulfilled that wish. Third, I wanted to coach at a school where I thought we could be successful and have a first-class basketball program. Our facilities are outstanding, we have scholarship money available and we have beautiful on-campus apartments.

- What do you feel makes AASU an attractive place to play college basketball and pursue an education.

Armstrong Atlantic provides the best of both worlds. A college diploma from AASU is a valuable tool. You will be very prepared in your field of study and will be marketable in the work world upon completion of your degree. We have state of the art classroom buildings, outstanding professors instructing in the classroom and, equally important, we have professors that care about the students and are willing to work with them to ensure academic success. AASU is a terrific place to play because of the philosophy of our basketball program. We want good people, individuals that will work to get their degree, and players that will compete on the basketball court. We have all the things a student-athlete needs to be successful at AASU.

- Explain your offensive and defensive philosophy for Armstrong Atlantic basketball.

Flexible would be the best way to describe our offensive and defensive philosophy. Offensively, we will change to take advantage of our most skilled players. We want to run in transition to put pressure on our opponent. If transition is not available, we want to be efficient with our offense and with our set plays. Defensively, we are a little more consistent. We want to play solid man-to-man defense in the half court and full court. We want to contain - contest - and close out possessions. We will trap some and play some zone. We will also adjust to certain situations depending on our opponent.

- What do you feel is the most important ingredient in building and maintaining a successful basketball program?

Players! You have to have good players. Recruiting is the lifeline of our program. To be great, we must be able to recruit against people in our league. Recruiting is always a tremendous challenge. We look for three things: First, we want a good person. This person should have some direction and goals for themselves as a student and as a player, along with a tremendous desire to succeed. Trust is also very important. Second, we want a person that can succeed and excel academically. Getting their degree and graduating must be important. And third, the person must be an outstanding player. They must possess basketball skills and have a love and passion for competition.

Burkhamer was the Georgia Collegiate Coach of the Year in 2006-07

Steve Franklin Assistant Men's Basketball Coach

Steve Franklin enters his second season at Armstrong Atlantic State as an assistant coach for head coach Jeff Burkhamer in 2007-08. A former player and coach for Burkhamer, Franklin joined AASU from USC Aiken, where he served as an assistant coach for six seasons and as the interim head coach for 18 games during the 2004-05 campaign.

Franklin graduated from USC Aiken in 1994 after a stellar two-year career in which he led the Pacers to the Peach Belt Conference regular season and tournament titles in 1992-93. Following his playing career, he assisted coach Burkhamer at Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville, Fla., where the Saints attained numerous national rankings - including a No. 1 ranking among Florida junior colleges - and won two Mid-Florida Conference titles. He served as an interim coach for the Saints in 1998-99, leading the Saints to an 18-12 record, before he returned to his alma mater to serve as an assistant coach to Mike Roberts in 1999. During his coaching tenure with USC Aiken, Franklin was named the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year award in 2003.

A native of Aiken, S.C., Franklin first became acquainted with coach Burkhamer at North Greenville College from 1989-91, playing for the Crusaders and helping lead them to a 58-10 record, two regional titles, two NJCAA tournament appearances and two top 20 national rankings. At South Aiken HS, Franklin was a two-time All-Conference and All-State player for the Thoroughbreds. Franklin will be in charge of recruiting, overseeing academics and will be involved with the individual development of the players on the court.

Coach Burkhamer says, "Steve is a former player and former assistant of mine, but even more importantly Steve is a close friend that I know I can trust and know will be loyal to our program. I am thrilled to have someone with Peach Belt Conference experience and a prior knowledge of me and our system on our coaching staff and I believe Steve is a perfect fit for our basketball program."

Joel Lecoeuvre Assistant Men's Basketball Coach

Joel Lecoeuvre enters his second season at Armstrong Atlantic State as an assistant coach for head coach Jeff Burkhamer in 2007-08.

Lecoeuvre played two years for the Pirates in 1999-2001 and served as an assistant basketball and football coach at Parkview High School in Atlanta the two years prior to joining AASU's coaching staff.

A 2003 graduate of Armstrong Atlantic with a degree in physical education, Lecoeuvre played in 30 games in two seasons for the Pirates, including hitting 48 percent of his three-pointers (24-of-50) during AASU's 2000-01 Peach Belt Championship season. A former Region 8-AAA Player of the Year, Lecoeuvre still holds the all-time scoring and assist records at North Gwinnett High School.

Coach Burkhamer says, "Joel is an energetic, ambitious and enthusiastic young coach. A former Pirate and AASU graduate, Joel already knows many individuals on our campus and throughout the Savannah area. Joel has also coached at the high school level in Atlanta, which should help us with recruiting contacts. He will be involved with the individual development of our perimeter players, recruiting, team travel, film exchange and academics."

Lecoeuvre is currently pursuing his master's degree in special education from Armstrong Atlantic.

The Pirates Game Plan

The Armstrong Atlantic State University men's basketball program has entered a new era under the leadership of coach Jeff Burkhamer. "We are looking for fine young men with the desire, work ethic and ability to move our program to national prominence in NCAA basketball in the years ahead."

Tough man-to-man pressure defense and an up tempo fast-breaking style offense will characterize the Pirates style of play in 2007-08. Burkhamer adds, "Our success will depend on how quickly our players adjust to our system of play and their ability to come together as a close-knit team."

We will build a successful program at AASU with good people. We have high expectations of our players as students, as role models in public and as competitors on the court. Our goals are higher than ten feet !"

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance" starring Will Smith and Matt

Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast's finest beaches.

Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

Armstrong Atlantic State University

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 268-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System. The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to a 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2002.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Health Professions, College of Education and School of Computing. The academic community includes approximately 7,000 students and more than 400 faculty members. Enrollment has nearly doubled in the last 15 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed projects include the nearly 30,000 square foot Armstrong Center for Continuing Education and Community Engagement, which opened this fall; a $5 million dollar renovation of the Lane Library; a brand new Student Recreation Facility and a 14,500 square foot Dental Hygiene clinic and Communicative Disorders Center. Campus life is abundant with Compass Point, University Crossings and University Terrace offering on-campus, two- and four-bedroom furnished apartments for 856 students.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. Construction of a women's fieldhouse for soccer and softball was completed in the spring of 2007.

AASU sponsors ten intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debuted in 2005-06, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that AASU sponsors. In 2006-07, seven of the 10 sports sponsored by AASU advanced to the NCAA Championships and for a second straight year, the Pirates captured the Peach Belt Conference's Presidential Academic Award.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Forty-three percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU was fully accredited as a senior institution in December, 1968

The Student-Athlete Program

The Student-Athlete Program at Armstrong Atlantic State University is a program designed to further educate our basketball players on the “game of life.” It is designed to help our players gain a better understanding of the vital areas of development in the maturation of the individual. The program guides a person through the necessary planning for life after college in topic areas that might not be covered in a lecture hall. This program is set up to further enhance our players knowledge concerning areas that will be dealt with during and after college. We feel it prepares our athletes for “Total Success,” whether it be on the basketball court, in the classroom or in the business world by formulating a positive attitude. The Student-Athlete Program is an attempt to develop all facets of a young person’s potential.

Academics

Armstrong Atlantic State University tries to keep the term "student-athlete" in perspective. At AASU, academic pursuits come first and athletics second. The Pirate coaching staff, along with the entire Athletic Department, continually works to help the student-athlete meet the challenges that they face on and off the playing surface.

Guidance is provided to help the student-athlete bridge the gap from college life to professional life in the working world. It is important that each young person is presented with the skills to make meaningful contributions to their communities.

Armstrong Atlantic State's coaches have made a strong commitment to see that every student-athlete's education is put first. The goal is to give every student-athlete the opportunity to complete their undergraduate degree and meet the challenges of the "real world."

AASU Earns PBC Presidents' Academic Award In 2007

Armstrong Atlantic State University has captured the 2007 Peach Belt Conference Presidents' Academic Award, announced by the league at its annual meeting in Hilton Head, S.C. The award recognizes excellence in academics concerning all of an institution's student-athletes and goes to the Pirates for the second straight year.

This spring, the Peach Belt asked each of the league's 12 members to submit an undergraduate student body average GPA and a student-athlete average GPA for the academic year. These two numbers were then used to create a ratio for each school. The award is given to the school with the highest ratio, which in its first year went to Armstrong Atlantic State with a ratio of 1.1441. As a whole, Armstrong Atlantic State student-athletes carried a 2.97 GPA for the 2006-07 academic year, including a spring semester in which the entire athletic department's GPA was above a 3.00 (3.012).

"I am extremely proud of our student athletes for their academic accomplishments," said University President Dr. Thomas Z. Jones, who also served as the President of the PBC Executive Committee for the 2006-07 academic year. "To be recognized by the Peach Belt Conference for the second consecutive year for outstanding academic achievement is a tribute to our student athletes, their coaches and the entire athletic department staff."

We continue to be extremely proud of the hard work on the part of our student-athletes," Athletic Director Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher said. "These men and women demonstrate every day how to succeed in both the classroom and on the field of play. Our coaching staff continues to do a tremendous job of recruiting these academic athletes and supporting their efforts in a number of ways."

Armstrong Atlantic State University, part of the University System of Georgia, was founded in 1935. The university offers more than 75 undergraduate and graduate programs in the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Education, the College of Health Professions, and the School of Computing. Armstrong Atlantic today serves more than 6,700 students. While 43 percent are from the Savannah-Chatham County area, the diverse student population comes from nearly all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and more than 70 countries.

AASU Athletics Enjoys Another Successful Year

The Armstrong Atlantic State athletic department enjoyed yet another successful season on the field in 2006-07, sending seven of 10 teams to the NCAA Championships - the best ratio among Peach Belt Conference schools.

Six of the Pirates' 10 teams also earned national rankings throughout the season, while 10 AASU student-athletes earned All-America honors, from coaches' associations or other organizations.

2006-07 Season Review

The AASU men's basketball team enjoyed another outstanding season in 2006-07, winning 20 games and advancing to the NCAA South Atlantic Regional for the third time in the last four years. It was also the first time in school history that the Pirates have advanced to the NCAA postseason in back-to-back years.

The Pirates opened the season with two close wins in Missouri, knocking off Truman State and Missouri Western State in the 2006 Hillyard Tip-Off Classic. AASU continued its early season success, winning five more games before the New Year - including its first-ever win over Eckerd College, a 60-59 win in the Chatham Orthopedics Holiday Classic on December 15 thanks to yet another Tory Harris game-winning shot.

AASU began the Peach Belt Conference slate by winning five of its first seven games, including a key 63-58 home win over Clayton State on January 24. Clayton State, then ranked No. 2 in the nation, became the highest-ranked team that the Pirates have beaten in the Peach Belt era.

A two-game skid afterwards turned around quickly as the Pirates reeled off five straight wins, including a 59-56 win over PBC newcomer Georgia Southwestern State on February 7 in which junior Jamaal Galloway became AASU's all-time leader in three-point baskets. The Pirates finished the regular season 11-5 in the league and continued its impressive streak in the Peach Belt Conference tournament by knocking off Francis Marion, 78-68, and winning its opening game in the league tournament for the 13th straight season.

The Pirates were paced during the season by the strong play of three key seniors. Senior Bryan Taylor became AASU's all-time games played leader (121) while also finishing his four-year career with 1,402 points scored and 851 rebounds, ranking fourth Senior Darly Massamba set career highs in points (6.3 ppg) and rebounds (4.4 rpg) in his final season with the Pirates and led AASU with 22 points in the NCAA Regional game against Wingate.

Senior Bryan Taylor (left) finished his four-year AASU career as the Pirates' all-time leader in games played (121) as well as the third leading rebounder (851) and fourth-leading scorer (1,402). Senior Tory Harris (right) finished his career as AASU's sixth-best free throw shooter all-time at 80 percent.

and third, respectively, on the AASU charts. Taylor earned All-PBC and NABC All-South Atlantic Region honors and is only one of two AASU players to earn All-PBC honors three times in their careers.

Senior Tory Harris also scored a team-leading 14.1 points per game while ranking fifth in the league in free throw percentage. A two-time PBC Player of the Week honoree, Harris also earned All-PBC honors and finished his two-year career as an 80 percent free throw shooter, sixth-best in AASU history. In his two years, Harris also knocked down four game-winning shots in the final minute of play.

The Pirates' other senior, Darly Massamba, averaged a career-best 6.3 points and 4.4 rebounds per game during the year and pumped in 22 points in AASU's NCAA South Atlantic Regional contest against Wingate University.

Galloway finished the season with 197 three-pointers, just three shy of becoming AASU's first player with 200 three-pointers, while junior William Kane enjoyed another solid season, dishing out 112 assists and ranking among the conference's leaders in assist and assist/turnover ratio. Junior Patrick Sanou continued to improve on the court, averaging 8.2 points per game and leading the team in blocks, while also becoming AASU's first-ever ESPN: The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree.

As a team, the Pirates led the Peach Belt in free throw percentage and ranked 24th in NCAA Division II with a school-record 74.4 percentage. AASU also achieved a high national ranking of No. 20 in the NABC Division II rankings in January.

AASU set a school record and ranked 24th in DII in free throw percentage.

The Peach Belt Conference

Peach Belt Conference National Champions

Since its inception in 1991, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 17th season with 24 national championships and 24 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and began play in 1991.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own.

The 2006-07 season continued the tradition of excellence the conference has established. The Columbus State baseball team reached the national championship game and USC Upstate finished just one stroke out of the lead in the golf national championships.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Upstate. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997. Kennesaw State and North Florida departed for the Division I ranks in 2005, USC Upstate did the same in 2007, and the conference welcomed in North Georgia College & State University in 2005 and Georgia Southwestern State University in 2006.

David Brunk was named the second PBC commissioner in May of 2007. Brunk replaced Marvin Vanover, who was the first PBC commissioner from 1991 to 2007. Brunk is charged with continuing the strong growth of the conference as its second era begins.

Dr. Dorothy Leland, president of Georgia College & State University, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2007-08.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

The Dearing Cup

With a history as long as the existence of basketball at Armstrong, the Dearing Cup has become a symbol among the Pirate faithful for dedication, preparation and execution on the basketball court. Named for longtime Savannah and Armstrong Atlantic State basketball supporter Ashley Dearing, the Dearing Cup is awarded to the AASU player with the best free throw percentage each season. Listed below are the winners of the Dearing Cup - an award that has been given for more than 50 years.

Last year, senior Tory Harris (right, pictured receiving the award from Ashley Dearing) captured the Dearing Cup by hitting 94 of his 114 free throws for an outstanding .825 free throw percentage, ranking 5th in the PBC as well as 65th in NCAA Division II. In his two seasons as a Pirate, Harris made 144 of 180 free throws for 80 percent, which ranks him seventh on AASU's all-time free throw chart.

The list of former winners of the Ashley Dearing Cup reads as a who's-who of Armstrong Atlantic State basketball - from AASU Athletic Hall of Famers Foy Ballance and Danny Sims to All-Americans Ike Williams and Danny Stell to current University of Wyoming head men's basketball coach Heath Schroyer.

AASU Basketball Facilities

The Armstrong Atlantic men's basketball team has the benefit of playing in one of the Peach Belt Conference's finest basketball facilities, the Armstrong Sports Center and Alumni Arena.

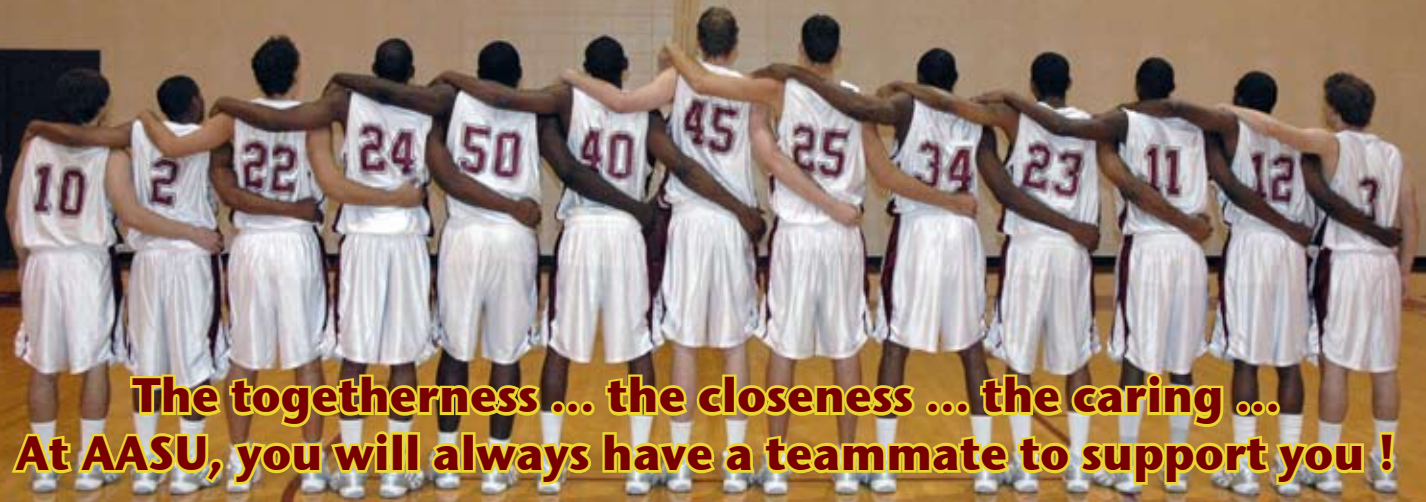

In 2005, the AASU men's basketball locker room was renovated and now includes individual wooden lockers, plush carpeting, individual action photos of current and past Pirate players and framed motivational signs designed to get the most out of the Pirates when they step onto the court.

Signs include "Play Hard," and "Play Together" that the Pirate players slap each time they leave the locker room together. Players from the 2007-08 squad have also signed a team commitment board that they see each time they leave the locker room as well.

In the 12 years that Alumni Arena has been open, the Pirates have accumulated an impressive 120-47 overall record. The new renovations, as well as the 'Compass Crazy's' student cheering section should help the Pirates continue the tradition of making Alumni Arena one of the toughest places to play in the Peach Belt Conference.

This Is Armstrong Atlantic Basketball
