Important information

This document has been prepared on behalf of NULIS Nominees (Australia) Limited, ABN 80 008 515 633, AFSL 236465 (NULIS) as Trustee of the MLC Super Fund, ABN 70 732 426 024 (the Fund). NULIS is part of the group of companies comprising Insignia Financial Ltd ABN 49 100 103 722 and its related bodies corporate (Insignia Financial Group).

The information in this document is general in nature and doesn't take into account your objectives, financial situation or individual needs. Before acting on any of this information you should consider whether it is appropriate for you. You should consider obtaining financial advice before making any decisions based on this information.

References to 'we', 'us' or 'our' are references to the Trustee, unless otherwise stated.

Subject to super law, the final authority on any issue relating to your account is the Fund's Trust Deed, and the relevant insurance policy, which govern your rights and obligations as a member.

Insurance is offered to members under insurance policies issued to the Trustee by the insurer. The insurance cover provided is subject to the terms and conditions contained in the insurance policies issued to the Trustee by the insurer. The terms and conditions of the policies prevail over any inconsistent information in the PDS, the Insurance Guide or this Claims Guide. The insurance information provided in the PDS, the Insurance Guide and this Claims Guide is based on the policies issued by the insurer, and information provided by the insurer about the operation of the policies. Insurance benefits will only become payable if the insurer accepts the relevant claim. For an approved insurance claim with a lump sum insured benefit (e.g. terminal illness or TPD benefit), the benefit amount will generally be paid by the insurer to the Trustee. That benefit amount along with your superannuation account balance can then be paid to you by the Trustee. Any benefit can be paid to you when you meet a condition of release under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993. For an approved insurance claim with another type of insured benefit (e.g. income type payment), these payments may be made to you directly by the insurer on behalf of the Trustee.

The information in this document may change from time to time. Any updates or changes that aren't materially adverse will be available at plum. com.au. You also can obtain a paper copy of these updates at no additional cost by contacting us.

Important information and definitions

Role of the Trustee

As the Trustee, we have a duty to act in the best interests of all our beneficiaries. We'll do this by providing insurance arrangements that aim to help support you and your beneficiaries at a time when it is needed most.

Once you've supplied your requested information and documents, we'll do everything reasonable to pursue your claim with the insurer so that it's processed efficiently and fairly.

Role of the insurer

The role of the insurer is to provide us with insurance policies that support the insurance arrangements, and to assess, manage and pay claims covered by those policies.

We'll work with the insurer to make sure that all successful claims are paid as quickly as possible.

The insurance policy

You'll find specific details about the terms and conditions of the insurance arrangement in the Insurance Policy.

If you'd like a copy of the Insurance Policy, please call us on 1300 55 7586.

A word about tax

As taxation law is complex, we recommend that you contact your tax adviser for further details and expert advice in relation to your circumstances.

Do you have cover under other insurance policies?

It's important to check what other insurance policies you hold, particularly if you have more than one super account. If you have multiple insurance policies, you might be paying premiums for policies you don't need.

What's next

In the following pages of this guide, you'll find claims process information for specific insurance types to help you understand what's required to make a claim and what's involved at each step of the claims management process.

Our claims process

Our insurance claims process typically has six key steps, and there are roles for us, the insurer and you.

Step 1: Make a claim

If you need to make a claim, start by calling us on 1300 55 7586 and we'll help you determine the best way to make a claim.

Find out more at plum.com.au/ making-a-claim

Step 2: We'll ask you some questions

We'll ask you some initial questions to make sure we send you the right documents.

If you need help with the claims process, understanding what's required of you, completing claim forms or providing requested claim information, we'll work with you and the insurer to find a solution.

Remember, it's important to provide complete and correct details in your claims pack. If you've already submitted claims documents that may contain incorrect details, please contact us straight away.

Step 3: We submit your claim to the insurer

When we receive your completed claims documents, we'll:

- acknowledge receipt of your claim,
- check if it contains all the required information,
- conduct another assessment of your eligibility to claim (including whether you have insurance cover),
- give the claim to the Insurer or tell you why you cannot make a claim,
- give you a chance to respond, and
- give you this Claims Guide.

If we need more information or we believe you aren't eligible to claim, we'll contact you. When we have all the information needed and we're satisfied you may be eligible to claim, we'll direct your claims documents to the insurer.

Step 4: The insurer assesses your claim

When the insurer receives your claim documents, it will start assessing and appoint a dedicated claims assessor to manage your claim. The insurer may need more information to assess the claim. It may also ask you to attend medical or vocational assessments. We or the insurer will let you know if that's the case.

You'll receive updates throughout the claims process. Of course, you can contact your claims assessor at any time if you have questions.

Procedural Fairness process

If the insurer's view on your claim is unfavourable, you'll be issued a Procedural Fairness Letter, which includes the following items for you to review:

- the evidence used by the insurer to assess your claim, and
- 2. the potential barriers to your claim.

You'll be given an opportunity to comment or correct evidence or errors in the documents used to assess your claim.

It is important that you're given the opportunity to review all of the materials obtained and used in the review of your claim, as well as a right to reply.

Once a response is received from you, you will be contacted about the next step of the claim process.

Step 5: We review the insurer's decision

Once the insurer has made a decision about your claim, they will refer the decision to us for review. We may return the claim to the insurer for example, if we have questions or do not agree with the insurer's decision.

Step 6: You'll be provided with an outcome

Once we're satisfied with the insurer's decision, we'll confirm the outcome of your claim in writing.

Our claims process

Resolving complaints

If you have a complaint about your claim please call us on 1800 512 333. If you'd prefer to put your complaint in writing, you can email us at complaints@mlc.com.au or send a letter to GPO Box 4341, Melbourne VIC 3001. We'll conduct a review and provide you with a response in writing.

If you're not satisfied with our resolution, or we haven't responded to you in 45 days, you can lodge a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).

AFCA provides an independent financial services complaint resolution process that's free to consumers. You can contact AFCA at any time by writing to GPO Box 3, Melbourne, VIC 3001, at their website (afca.org.au), by email at info@afca.org.au, or by phone on 1800 931 678 (free call).

To view our complaints management policy, visit plum.com.au/complaints

Why does it take so long?

It's important your claim is assessed correctly. In order for us to do that, we'll work with the insurer to review all the relevant information. This includes information from you, your doctor, medical specialists and your employer. This can take a while, but we'll make sure we keep you updated.

Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance

When would I make a claim?

Generally, you must have stopped work for a set period of time before you can lodge a TPD claim. You'll find details about this in the Insurance Guide.

How will my claim be assessed?

You may be eligible for a TPD benefit if the insurer is satisfied that, due to an illness or injury, you:

- have ceased work, and
- satisfy a TPD definition.

Depending on your employment before your disablement, different TPD definitions may apply to you. Your claim will be assessed differently depending on whether you have been working or not and sometimes depending on your occupation. To find out which TPD definition applies to you and any exclusions that may apply, refer to the Insurance Guide.

The insurer will assess your capacity to work under the definitions that apply to you. Generally this will be based on your ability to perform any reasonably suitable occupation relating to your education, training or experience – not just the occupation you hold when you become injured or ill.

When reviewing your claim and determining whether you're unable to work, the insurer may consider your level of education, any further study, qualifications and certifications you've obtained, as well as skills and abilities you've acquired through paid and unpaid work, as well as hobbies or interests.

Depending on your TPD definition the insurer may also consider retraining and rehabilitation that would be reasonable for you to undertake (refer to the Insurance Guide).

Frequently asked questions

What forms need be completed?

You, your doctors and your employer may need to complete some of the following forms:

- Claim form (Completed by you)
- Tax File Number (TFN) Declaration (Completed by you)
- Two Treating Doctors Reports (Completed by your treating doctors), and
- Employer Statement (Completed by your employer). If your employer is unable or unwilling to provide this, we may request additional information from you about your employment in order to assess your claim. Some of the above information can be provided over the phone.

Do I still pay premiums when I'm accepted for a TPD claim?

Any TPD premiums deducted from the date of your disablement will generally be refunded to your super account.

What are the payment options if my TPD claim is approved?

Approved TPD claims will generally be paid into the fund's applicable cash investment option in your super account. You can choose to switch part, or all, of the proceeds into a different investment option within the fund.

You can also apply for the proceeds to be released to you in the following ways:

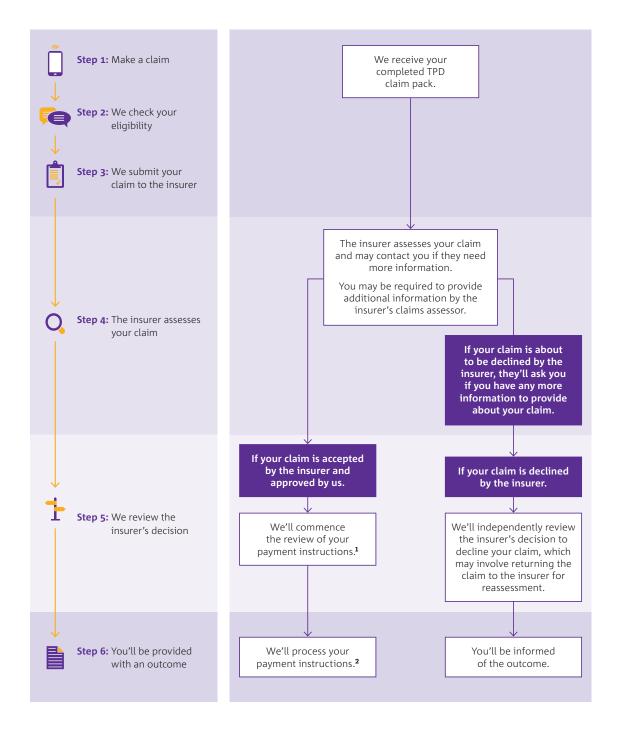

- as a full or partial lump sum
- as a pension, or
- to another complying super/pension account, via a rollover.

We recommend that you seek financial advice in relation to the payment of benefits.

What do I do if I want to make a Terminal Illness claim instead of a TPD claim?

Refer to page 15 for how to make a Terminal Illness claim.

Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) claims process

- 1. A superannuation benefit can only be paid when a condition of release under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 is met.
- 2. For an approved insurance claim with a lump sum insured benefit (e.g. TPD benefit) the benefit amount will usually be paid by the insurer to the Trustee. That benefit amount along with your superannuation account balance can then generally be paid to you by the Trustee. The insurer is not part of the Insignia Financial Group.

Salary Continuance Insurance (SCI)

When would I make a claim?

You can make an SCI claim if you're temporarily unable to work due to an illness or injury.

How will my claim be assessed?

You may be eligible to claim for an SCI benefit if the insurer is satisfied that, due to illness or injury. To find out which SCI definition applies to you, refer to the Insurance Guide. For example, it may mean:

- you met a period of total disability where you weren't engaged in any occupation, whether paid or unpaid
- you're unable to perform at least one of the important duties in your job, and
- you're in the care of a medical professional related to your illness or injury, and following regular and continuous advice from them, and
- you've not returned to the full hours and duties of your previous occupation.

Frequently asked questions

How long do I have to wait before I can make a claim?

You can lodge a claim immediately.

What forms need to be completed?

You, your doctors and employer may need to complete some of the following forms we'll send you:

- Claim form (Completed by you)
- Tax File Number (TFN) Declaration (Completed by you)
- Two Treating Doctors Reports (Completed by your treating doctors), and
- Employer Statement (Completed by your employer).

When will I receive my first payment?

In order for payments to commence, your claim needs to have been approved, and you need to have been absent from work for your nominated Waiting Period (30, 60, 90 or 180 days). You can check your Waiting Period online or on your annual statement. Payments are monthly in arrears and are paid to your nominated bank account.

How long is my benefit paid for?

Depending on the terms of the policy, your benefit will be paid for a maximum of two or five years, or up to age 65 (if you continue to meet the relevant definition). You can check your chosen benefit period on your annual statement. Payment of this benefit will start to accrue from the first day after your Waiting Period has expired.

Will my premiums stop when I am on a claim?

Yes. Your SCI premiums will be waived by the insurer and we won't charge your super account.

Can I claim on multiple policies?

It's important to check what other insurance policies you hold. For SCI cover, you can generally only claim on one policy. If you have multiple policies, you might be paying premiums for policies you don't require or you're not eligible to claim on.

How much benefit will I receive and will my benefits be reduced (offset)?

This insurance provides a monthly benefit of up to 75% of your Monthly Income while you're Totally Disabled and unable to work. The amount of monthly benefit payable will be the lesser of:

- vour agreed benefit, and
- your maximum monthly benefit payable at the Date of Claim.

Your benefit may be reduced if you receive other income while you are unable to work due to illness or injury. The benefit will be reduced so that the total of your other income and your monthly benefit does not exceed 75% of your Monthly Income (or the maximum percentage that applies to you). Refer to your Insurance Guide for more information on how benefits are calculated and examples of other income that may be offset against your benefit.

Case Study - Salary Continuance Payments

How Salary Continuance helped Jill get back on her feet

Jill is a Plum Super member and has Salary Continuance Cover with the Plan.

She is 26 years old, a permanent full-time white-collar Employee and has a salary excluding super of $42,000 p.a. Jill loves the outdoors and regularly goes rock climbing. However, one weekend while climbing, she falls and seriously injures her back. After an initial hospital stay of two months, her doctor informs her that she will need four months of in-hospital rehabilitation and a further nine months at home recuperating, before she can safely resume work. Jill immediately submits a Salary Continuance claim.

Her benefit is calculated as follows:

Annual Salary Continuance benefit

- = Salary excluding super
- = $42,000 x 75%
- = $31,500

Monthly Salary Continuance benefit

- $= $31,500 \div 12$
- = $2,625 per month

Annual super contribution (if applicable)

- = Salary excluding super
- =$42,000 x 11%
- = $4,620

Monthly super contribution (paid to Jill's super account)

- $= $4,620 \div 12$
- = $385 per month

Jill is advised that her claim has been accepted and monthly payments will commence after the 90 day Waiting Period, when she will receive $2,625 per month (before tax) from her Salary Continuance insurance, plus an additional $385 paid into her super account.

Jill's claim timeline

- The date Jill was injured and unable to work and the commencement of the 90 day Waiting Period 1 April
- The day the 90 day Waiting Period expires 29 June
- First benefit payment period 30 June to 29 July
- First benefit payment date, made in arrears to be payment period 30 July

This helps cover Jill's living expenses, allowing her to focus on her recovery.

Salary Continuance Insurance (SCI) claims process

1. A superannuation benefit can only be paid when a condition of release under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 is met. These payments may be made to you directly by the insurer on behalf of the Trustee. The insurer is not part of the Insignia Financial Group.

Death insurance

When should a claim be made?

A claim for a Death benefit should be made as soon as possible.

Death benefit payments

The law and the Fund's Trust Deed set out who is eligible to receive a Death benefit from a super fund. Generally, death benefits can only be paid from a superannuation fund to the deceased's:

- dependant(s), and/or
- legal personal representative.

If we've made reasonable enquiries and haven't found either a dependant or legal personal representative of the deceased, only then can payment be made to another person.

In addition to the deceased's super account balance, there may also be Death insurance attached to the account.

Types of nominations

Binding Nomination: Where we've accepted a binding beneficiary nomination from a member and that nomination remains valid at the date of the member's death, it must generally be followed. Once a binding nomination has been validated, the claim will be finalised as soon as practicable.

Non-Binding Nomination: You can make a non-binding nomination, which states the proportion of your account balance you would like paid to your nominated beneficiaries and/or legal personal representative. This is not binding on us. We decide how to distribute your death benefit, taking into consideration your preferred beneficiaries, the Trust Deed, relevant law and your personal circumstances at the time of your death.

No Nomination: It isn't compulsory to nominate a beneficiary to receive your death benefit. If you don't make a nomination and you die, we decide how to distribute your death benefit, taking into consideration the Trust Deed, relevant law and other factors, such as your personal circumstances at the time of your death.

In the case of non-binding or no nomination:

- We'll make reasonable enquiries to identify all potential beneficiaries and will generally advise all parties of our proposed determination in writing. This notification will also outline how objections to the decision can be submitted and the applicable timeframes.
- If an objection is received by us, the information will be reviewed and further information may be requested. We can re-affirm, vary or rescind the proposed decision which will then be communicated to all parties. If we re-affirm the decision and you are not satisfied, or we have not responded to your objection within 90 days after the expiry of the 28 calendar day objection period, any complaints in relation to our decision can be directed to AFCA. No payment will be made until the AFCA process is finalised. (See 'Resolving complaints' on page 5 for more information).

Frequently asked questions

What happens to the deceased's account when the fund is notified of their death?

The deceased's super balance will be switched to the fund's applicable cash investment option from the day we're notified of their death to protect their assets while the Death benefit claim is being assessed.

What forms need to be completed?

Interested parties need to complete the following forms:

- Potential Beneficiary Statutory Declaration (Completed by interested parties)
- Proof of Identity form (Completed by interested parties), and
- Medical Authority (Completed by next of kin).

Does anything else need to be provided with the forms?

Yes. A certified copy of the deceased's death certificate must be provided with the forms as well as proof of their age. A certified copy of their Will, Grant of Probate or a Grant of Letters of Administration of the deceased's Estate may also be required.

What is a Grant of Probate or Grant of Letters of Administration?

This is a legal order issued by the Court which enables an executor or administrator (Legal Personal Representative) to deal with a deceased person's assets.

Death insurance

Who is a dependant?

A dependant is generally defined as:

- a spouse, including de facto and same-sex spouse
- a child, including adult children, adopted children, or children of the person's spouse
- any person with whom the deceased had an interdependent relationship, or
- any person who is wholly or partially financially dependent on the deceased.

What are the payment options if the Death claim is approved?

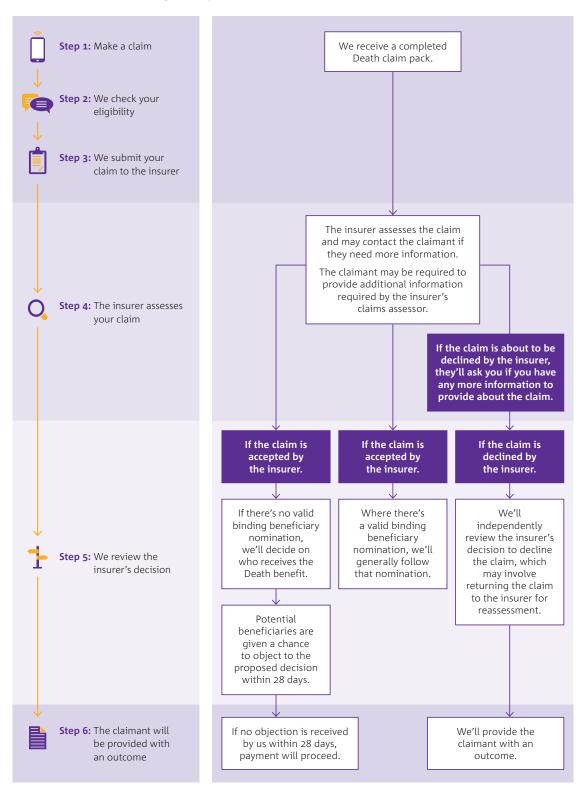

Approved Death claims can be paid:

- as a lump sum, or
- as a pension (if applicable).

We recommend that financial advice be sought in relation to the payment of benefits.

Death claims process

The process outlined below generally applies to Death claims with insurance.

For an approved insurance claim with a lump sum insured benefit (e.g. a death benefit), the benefit amount will be paid by the insurer to the Trustee. That benefit amount along with the superannuation account balance will then be paid by the Trustee. The insurer is not part of the Insignia Financial Group.

Death claims process

If an objection is received, the Trustee will review the objection and notify beneficiaries that an objection has been received. Once the Trustee has finalised its review of this, a decision on the distribution of the death benefit will be made. The Trustee's decision could be the same as it original decision (Final Decision), or they could make a different decision depending on the validity and weight of the objection.

If a new decision is made, a new proposal on the distribution of the death benefit will be issued to the relevant beneficiaries and the beneficiaries will have an opportunity to object to the Trustee's new proposal within 28 days.

If the Trustee issues a Final Decision (meaning the Trustee has affirmed its proposed decision), any objections to the Final Decision must be lodged as a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) within 28 days of receiving notification of the Final Decision or taken to Court. Complaints can generally only be lodged with the AFCA if you have followed the internal review process as outlined above or if the Trustee has failed to make a decision within 90 days of receiving an objection.

Terminal Illness (TI) Claim

When would I make a claim?

You may make a claim for a Terminal Illness benefit if you have been diagnosed with a terminal illness.

How will my claim be assessed?

You may be eligible to make a Terminal Illness claim if two doctors, one of whom is a specialist in the field of your illness or injury, certify that your life expectancy is less than 12 or 24 months (depending on the insurance policy which applies to you).

See the relevant Insurance Guide for more information.

Frequently asked questions

How long do I have to wait before I can lodge a Terminal Illness claim?

There's no waiting period to lodge a Terminal Illness claim, once you've been diagnosed by two doctors.

What forms need be completed?

You and your doctors will need to complete certain forms, including:

- Claim form (Completed by you), and
- Proof of identity form (Completed by you).

You'll also need to obtain the following documents to attach to your claim submission:

- Treating Doctors Report (Completed by your treating doctor), and
- Treating Doctors Report (Completed by your treating specialist in the field of your illness or injury).

Do I still pay premiums when I'm accepted for a Terminal Illness claim?

No. Any premiums deducted from the date your claim is accepted will be refunded to your super account.

No. You won't have to repay your Terminal Illness benefit if you live longer than 12 or 24 months.

What are the payment options if my Terminal Illness claim is approved?

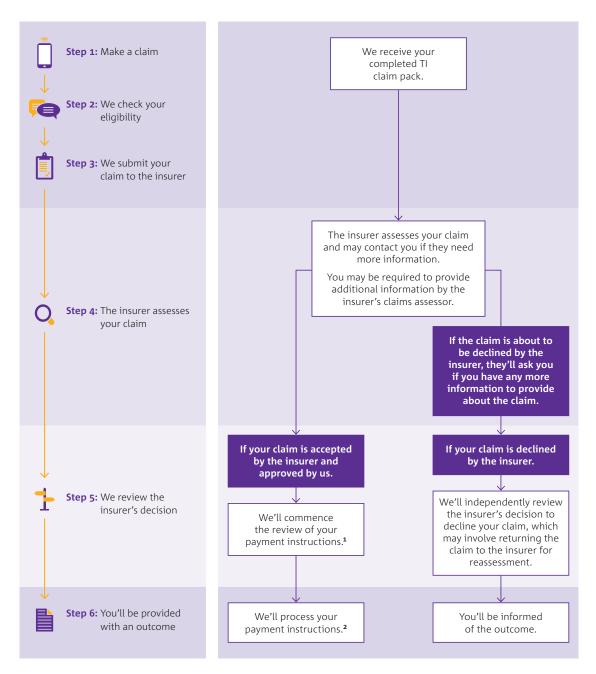

Approved Terminal Illness claims will be paid into the fund's applicable cash investment option in your super account. You can choose to switch part, or all, of the proceeds into a different investment option within the fund.

You can also apply for the proceeds to be released to you in the following ways:

- as a lump sum
- as a pension, or
- to another complying super/pension account, via a rollover (however tax law treats a rollover of a terminal illness benefit as a contribution in the new fund which may have contribution cap implications).

We recommend that you seek financial advice in relation to the payment of benefits.

Terminal Illness (TI) claims process (if you have Death insurance)

- 1. A superannuation benefit can only be paid when a condition of release under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 is met.
- 2. For an approved insurance claim with a lump sum insured benefit (e.g. Terminal Illness benefit) the benefit amount will be paid by the insurer to the Trustee. That benefit amount along with your superannuation account balance will then be paid to you by the Trustee. The insurer is not part of the Insignia Financial Group.
