Overview

Volunteers and employees covered under the Criminal Records Review Act will obtain a web link and unique access code from their registered volunteer organization or employer organization.

This guide will walk through all of the steps in order to process the online eCRC application.

Figures

Walk-through of a new employee or volunteer check, page 3:

In this example scenario an employee is requesting a criminal record check. The volunteer process will mirror this process except – the volunteer applicant will not be required to pay the $28 fee.

Walk-through of a sharing check, page 9:

This scenario explains how to share an existing check. This is available to employees and volunteers at no cost.

---

NEW Criminal Record Check

Once the employee or volunteer types in the web link provided by their employer, the screen below will be displayed:

Criminal Record Check

PLEASE DO NOT USE YOUR BACK BUTTON ON YOUR INTERNET BROWSER
ALWAYS USE THE NAVIGATION BUTTONS AS INDICATED IN THE APPLICATION

Request a New Criminal Record Check

To Submit and online request for a criminal record check, you must:

- Be at least 12 years of age as of today's date.
- Have your identity verified through the Electronic Identity Verification (EIV) process.
Please Note: Not all individuals will be able to use the EIV process and may be required to submit the request for a criminal record check through the manual paper process.

To use the EIV:

- Individuals must have a minimum Canadian credit history of at least six months.
- Individuals must have been residing in Canada for two years or longer.
- Individuals must correctly answer a set of security questions unique to their personal credit history.
- Must have a current Canadian address. (Please do not enter a foreign address through the on-line service)

Share the Result of a Completed Criminal Record Check

To submit an online request to share the result of a completed criminal record check:

- The criminal record check must have been completed within the last 5 years through the Ministry of Justice Criminal Records Review Program. Note: A criminal record check is considered complete once the result of the check has been issued to an organization
- The request must be for the same type of check as previously completed, either for children, vulnerable adults, or both children and vulnerable adults
- Have your identity verified through the Electronic Identity Verification (EIV) process.
Please Note: Not all individuals will be able to use the EIV process and may be required to submit the request for a criminal record check through the manual paper process.

Enter the access code provided by your organization. An access code is required to proceed with the online submission:

If you cannot read the text above, click on the image to regenerate the text.

Please type in the characters shown above.

Enter the access code that your employer or volunteer organization has provided you. Then enter the characters shown in the image. Once this is complete select “Request for a New Criminal Check”

Important Note: Please do not use the back buttons on your browser.

After selecting “request a new criminal record check, the organization information will be displayed:

Once you have confirmed the organization information displayed is the organization for which you wish to complete the criminal record check, select Next.

The screenshot shows the 'Criminal Record Check' page for 'Organization Details'. The page header includes 'B.C.'s Justice System' and 'Ministry of Justice'. The main content area is titled 'Criminal Record Check' and 'Organization Information'. The organization name is 'BABES IN TOYLAND'. The address is '1-20709 EASLEIGH CREST, LANGLEY, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, V3A 4C3'. The role is 'EMPLOYEE'. There are navigation links for 'Cancel' and 'Next' at the bottom.

The screenshot shows the 'Consent Information' page. It contains several sections: 'Consent to a Criminal Record Check' with five bullet points regarding consent to a check, release of information, and reporting of charges; 'I have read and understand the above:' with 'Yes' and 'No' radio buttons; 'Consent to Release Personal Information' with a consent statement and radio buttons; and 'FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY ACT (FOIPPA):' with a detailed paragraph about data collection and contact information. There are 'Cancel' and 'Next' buttons at the bottom.

This page contains the consent information. You must select “yes” in both places indicated on this screen to give your consent to do the criminal record check and to give your consent to releasing personal information to Equifax for the purpose of confirming your identity only. The Equifax service is called EIV (electronic identity verification). Please see the EIV section of the guide for additional information. Select Next to proceed.
