Foldable aluminum laptop stand

Practical and stable to take wherever you go

A comfortable posture is key to being productive and healthy. This foldable laptop stand made of aluminum is light yet stable to hold devices up to 15.6 inches, so you can browse, type, or read at ease knowing that your device is secure thanks to its silicone pads that keep the laptop or tablet in place. In addition, the pads on the legs and back of the stand protect the device from scratches. Adjust it to the screen height that works for you with seven height settings, and when you are done just fold it and carry it with you in its storage bag. It makes for the perfect portable standing desk to restfully work or study.

Highlights

- Wide compatibility: The aluminum laptop stand fits 11 to 15.6in devices like MacBooks Air/Pro, HP, Dell, Lenovo, Acer, ASUS, Microsoft Surface, Kindle and others
- Ergonomic design: 7 adjustable height settings raise the device to your visual level whenever you shift position in order to avoid neck and shoulder discomfort
- Open layout: Its open design allows ventilation, preventing equipment from overheating
- Foldable and portable: Lightweight and easy to carry in its storage bag to take it anywhere in your backpack
- Strong built: Features non-slip silicone pads in the legs and back to ensure maximum stability avoiding unnecessary accidents
